

We are between journal editors, so please send your manuscripts to me as Interim Editor at awakefie@odu.edu, and I will send them out for review. Liala Strotman has done a wonderful job, as we broke new ground creating our journal on line. We thank her for all her work for the past two years. The new editor will have an easier job for all the well-laid ground work Liala initiated. I hope to announce the new editor and co-editor soon.
